Brampton North Defence Town Hall
MP Ruby Sahota holds Consultations on Defence Policy Review

08/07/2016 – Brampton, Ontario – Ms. Ruby Sahota, Member of Parliament for Brampton North, held a town hall discussion as part of the Government of Canada's public consultations on the development of a new defence policy for Canada.

This National Defence public consultation is the first of this magnitude in over 20 years. The purpose of MP. Sahota's town hall consultation was to gain insight on the main challenges facing Canada's international and domestic security and to deduce the threats and challenges impacting the Canadian Armed Forces.

"Canada is recognized internationally for its longstanding history of contributing to both military and civilian operations." said MP Ruby Sahota "Canadians are proud of this legacy and with this public consultation, our aim is to continue to foster and strengthen this legacy."

Well-rounded turnout included men and women that served in all branches of the Canadian Armed Forces, individuals with extensive policy knowledge and experience, Brampton North citizens, and effected industry representatives.

The information gathered at the Brampton North Defence Policy public consultation will be used to help the Department of National Defence and the Canadian Armed Forces develop a new policy to advance the methods and techniques used to confront new threats and challenges that Canada will face in the coming years.
