Federal Budget Release 2016

Member of Parliament Ruby Sahota Encouraged by the Federal Budget 2016

24/03/2016 – Ottawa, Ontario – Ms. Ruby Sahota, Member of Parliament for Brampton North, welcomes our federal government’s budget and applauds Finance Minister Bill Morneau on his department’s excellent work

Budget 2016 is an ambitious, long-term plan to strengthen the heart of the Canada’s economy – the middle class. The budget reflects a new approach for the government: one that offers immediate help to those who need it most, and sets the course for growth for all Canadians. It places emphasizes on taking essential steps to grow the middle class and revitalize the Canadian economy.

“The budget announced today demonstrates the government’s commitment to invest in all Canadians and I am confident it will be well-received by my constituents in Brampton North.” said MP Ruby Sahota “I am particularly excited about the investment in post-secondary education, infrastructure, middle-class families and the economy.”

The federal budget has a lot to offer Ontario, Peel Region, and the City of Brampton. Budget 2016 has made investments in areas of importance to the constituents of Brampton North, such as public transit, aging infrastructure, and social housing.
