Prominent Committee Appointments for MP Ruby Sahota

10/02/2020 – Ottawa, ON – Ruby Sahota, the re-elected Member of Parliament for Brampton North, will be very busy in Ottawa serving as the newly elected Chair of the House of Commons Standing Committee on Procedure and House Affairs and member of the House of Commons Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs and International Development.

As Chair of the Procedure and House Affairs Committee, MP Sahota will preside over committee meetings as the committee studies and reports on electoral matters (Elections Canada), and the rules and practices of the House and its committees – increasingly important in a minority government.

As a member of the Foreign Affairs Committee, MP Sahota will study matters related to international affairs, including Canada's foreign policy, global governance, international security, international human rights, and development assistance.

“Committees are the backbone of our democracy and I am humbled to be elected Chair of Procedure and House Affairs and appointed a member of the Foreign Affairs Committee,” said MP Sahota. “I look forward to working with my colleagues, from all parties, to ensure that the 43rd Parliament is working smoothly to deliver for Canadians.”

MP Sahota has previously served as a member of the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security, the Standing Committee on the Status of Women, the Special Committee on Electoral Reform, and served as the Chair of the Federal Liberal Ontario Caucus.
